

On the determination of the definition of Protestant vis-a-vis Pagan, with reference to:

- Eric MacKenzie The Delict of Heresy (1932) Imprimatur p15
- Council of Trent, Session VII, On Baptism, Canon 4 (1547)
- J. Tixeront Holy Orders and Ordination (1928) Imprimatur
- Adrian Fortescue The Greek Fathers (1908) Imprimatur
- St Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologica (1274) III, Q. 64, Art. 9, ad. 1
- John Gerard A Course of Religious Instruction for Catholic Youth (1901) Imprimatur
- Joseph Wilhelm & Thomas B Scannell A Manual of Catholic Theology Vol. II. (1901) Imprimatur

Resolved

- 1 That there is one Revelation, one Church of Christ, the Second Covenant, one true religion
 - It is irrelevant that Protestants know only a part of Revelation
 - Separately, they are heretics by a second route, because they deny the remainder of Revelation
- 2 That regarding the Sacrament of Baptism
 - Intention: for the Church of Christ is required (ie. Sectarian Baptism is valid; Jewish & JW baptism is invalid)
 - Form: conferred in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, identifies the Trinity, the New Covenant
 - that the Sacrament is supplied by Christ, not the priest; that the priest is His instrument
 - that the unbelief; denial of Revelation; heresy; unawareness that it is a Sacrament, etc. of the priest, does not invalidate Baptism
- 3 That the Protestant is an heretic
 - the minimum claim to being a Protestant is Baptism; if unbaptised, the person is an Infidel
- 4 That the Jew is a pagan:
 - Although baptised, they (a) are not baptised in the Name of Christ or into His Church, and (b) reject the Messias, the New Covenant.
 - Circumcised (Old Covenant) instead of baptised (New Covenant)

Membership

On the determination of the definition of Membership in the Catholic Church, same references.
The purpose is not merely punishment of criminals, but the protection of the flock, from being infected.

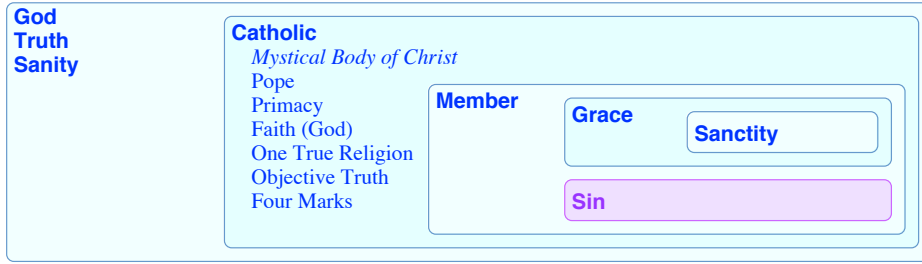

Protection Isolation

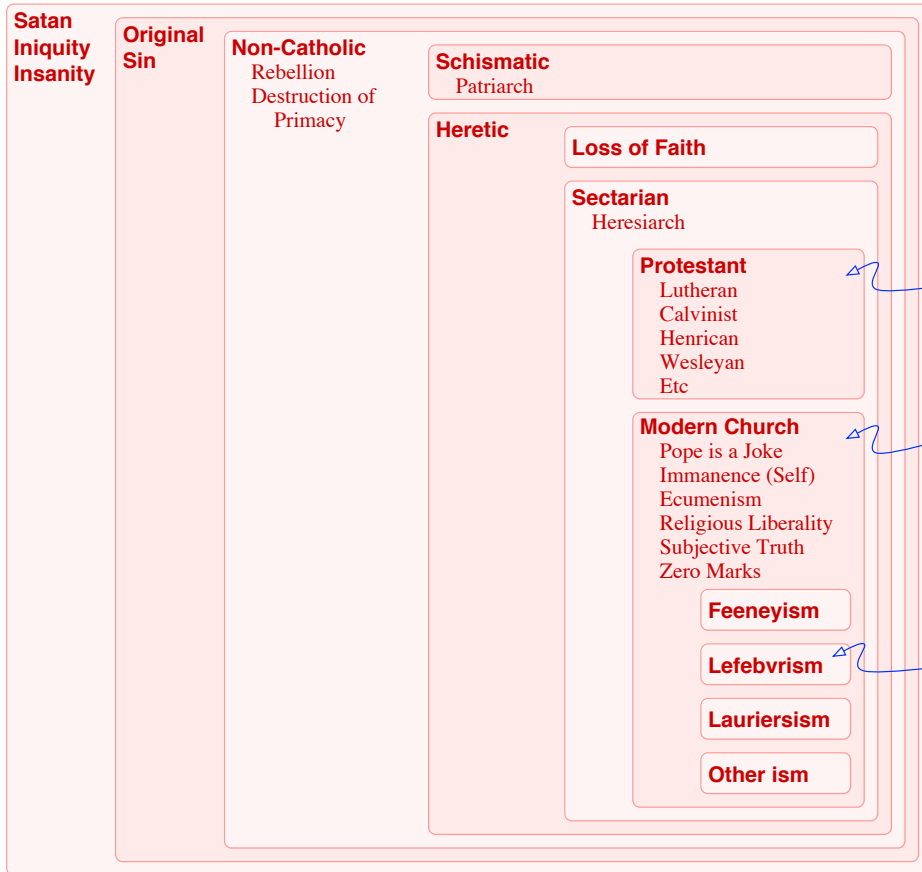

Typical usage ... Recent Heresies ...

Explain:

- Why heresy is a capital crime
- That protection is primary
- Punishment is secondary

Protection
Isolation

33,909 Sects

Just another Heretical Sect
1.6B People
1.6B Faiths
Large, and sects within it, etc

110,000 People

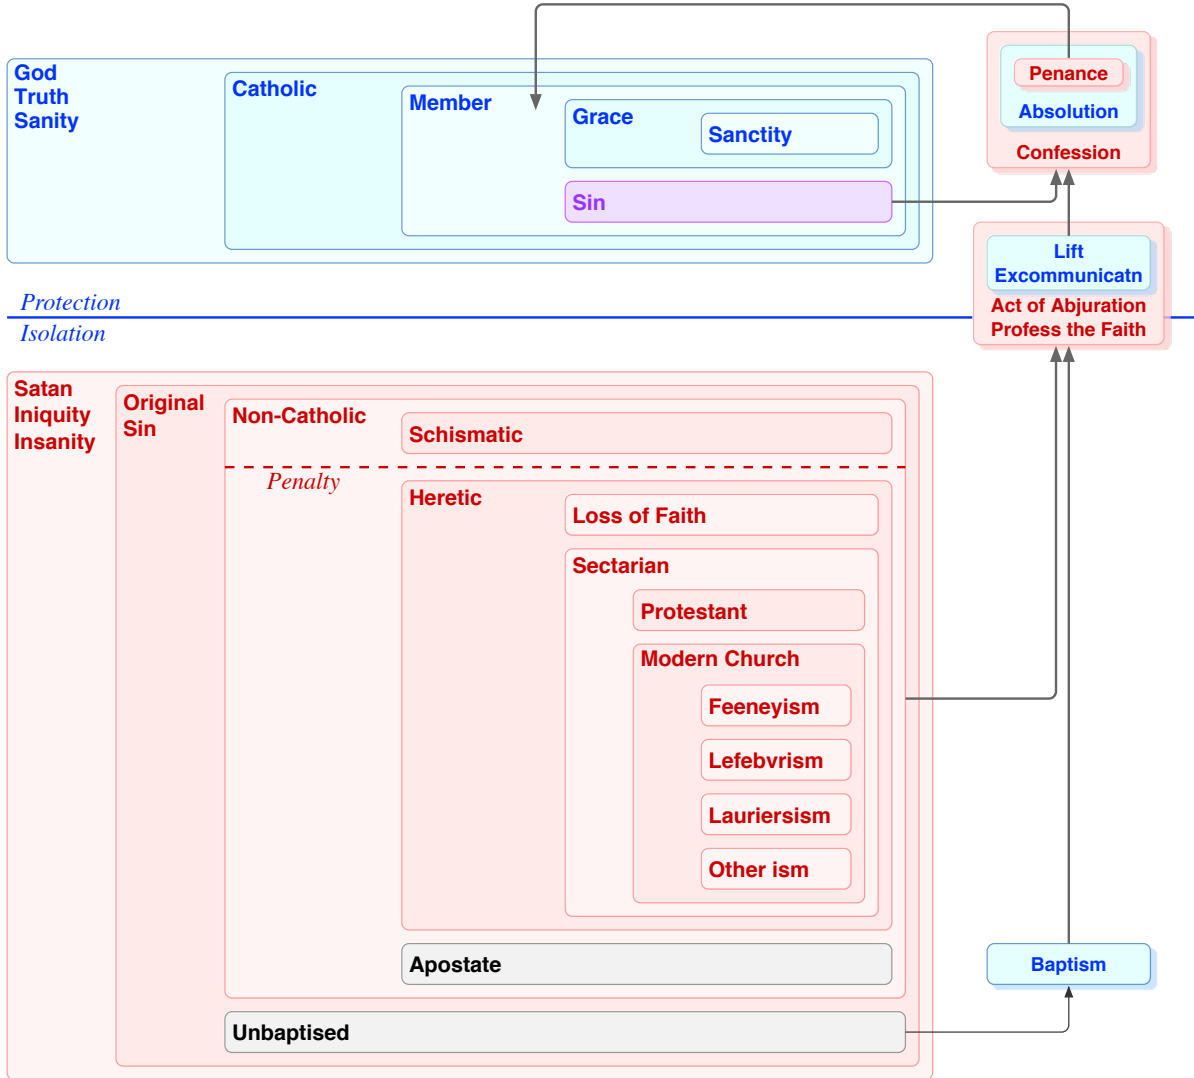

Reception of Converts

On the reception of converts into the Church.

Terms

- Excommunication is vitandi or tolerati
- Excommunication due to heresy is a breach of Divine Law, not Ecclesiastic Law (but the Canons provide for it)
- Excommunication due to heresy is ipso facto (by that very fact), meaning that no declaration is required, and thereafter, one of two types: late sententiae (sentence already passed, due to Canon Law) or ferendae sententiae (sentence to be passed).

Explain:
 • The service
 • The acts