7 Angel

Uncreated, Eternal, Infinite

Created

Mortal, Finite

Created Matter
- Composite, of Matter (sensible) and Form (insensible but known)
- Ceaseless accidental change
- Substantial change possible

Time & Space
- Has Beginning & End
- Successive Now
- Duration of Time

Immortal, Finite

Created Spirit
- Form only, no Matter
- Substantial permanence
- Accidental change

Æviternity
- Has Beginning, No End
- Successive Now
- Duration of accidental change

Infinite Being
- Single pure Form
- Utterly changeless

Eternity
- No Beginning, No End
- Eternal Now
- Duration of that which does not change

Heaven

Form · Immortal Soul
Holy Angels

Form · Immortal Soul
Fallen Angels
Permitted, active

Created Spirit · Angel
- As real as your immortal soul
- As invisible as your immortal soul
- Form only, same as your soul
- Subsistent (cannot be otherwise!)
- Higher choirs (closer to God) are a single Form
- Lower choirs (mundane tasks) are stacked Forms

Purgatory

Form · Immortal Soul
Imperfect Holy souls

Hell

Form · Immortal Soul
Fallen Angels

Aristotle

Asirvadem
Across
Four Layers

St Anselm
St Augustine
St Thomas

Sheed
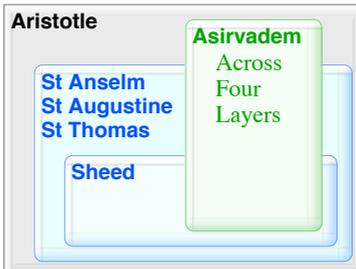

Formal Logic
- Language, Semantic (Aristotle; St Thomas)
  - Demonstrated herein, without formal introduction
- Abstract concepts
  - The Infinite cannot be defined, let alone by a finite mind
  - The Infinite, God, cannot be drawn in a circle, or on a page
  - At best, this is knowledge by analogy, per St Thomas, constrained by Formal Logic